

Supplementary Material – S2

Table 1. Detailed categorization of dance levels and dance genres reported by included articles. Dance genre categorization was informed by the suggested dance genre categories in the Canada Council of the Arts report in 2013 titled “Dancing Across the Land: A Report on the Dance Mapping Inventory.”

Level of Dance (as reported by article)	Level of Dance (categorized)
Not reported	Not reported
Studio level (not clear if recreational or competitive) Student (not clear if at studio or university)	Unclear
Vocational Pre-professional Full-time pre-professional Graduate (at performance company)	Pre-professional
Studio level (recreational) Recreational Student (at a studio / dance school) Beginner Intermediate Non-elite Novice Non-professional (do not compete) Level 3 (Irish dancing) Level 4 (Irish dancing)	Recreational
Studio level (competitive) Elite adolescent Elite Elite amateur Amateur International Championship standard Competitive Senior expert Top level Level 5 (Irish Dancing) Experienced Advanced Non-professional (but compete)	Competitive
Student (at university) University College Collegiate	University
Part-time professional Professional Semi-professional Full-time professional	Professional

Primary dance genre (as reported by article)	Dance genre (categorized)
Not reported	Not reported
Ballet / classical ballet Pointe	Ballet
Ballroom Cha-cha Dancesport / Sportdance Jive Ballroom/dancesport Latin Rumba Samba Tango Waltz Viennese waltz Paso doble Foxtrot Quickstep	Dancesport (includes Latin and Standard sub-genres)
Modern	Modern
Contemporary Creative Character Lyrical Composition Improv	Contemporary
Chinese dance Highland Irish Bharatanatyan Flamenco Spanish dance Belly dance South Asian dance Caribbean dance Salsa Folk Latin (non-ballroom) Ethnic Afro Cuban salsa Mexican folk Historical dance	Cultural / folk dances
Jazz Theatrical jazz	Jazz
Tap	Tap
Street dance Hip hop Breakdance	Street dance
Other	Other

Pole dancing Dance show Disco Freestyle disco Slow dance (in disco)
---	--